

DETROIT CHAPTER FEDERAL BAR ASSOCIATION NEWSLETTER

APRIL 1993

A (Habeas) Chorus Line practices for the May 7th Annual Dinner.

Front row: Brian Figot and Justine Klimko,

DINNER HONORING FEDERAL JUDICIAL OFFICERS SCHEDULED FOR MAY 7th.

The Fourteenth Annual Dinner honoring the Eastern District's Judicial Officers will be held on Friday, May 7, 1993 at the beautiful International Center Ballroom in Greektown. The evening will begin with a cocktail reception at 5:30 p.m. with dinner to follow at 7:00 p.m.

Immediately following dinner, the group A (Habeas) Chorus Line will present "Les Miserab-Laws". This is an all new production by the same wonderful group of local legal talent which performed at the dinner last year.

Tickets will be sold by the table or individual tickets at $60.00 each. All proceeds from the dinner go to the Detroit Chapter's Foundation.

The FBA dinner affords a wonderful opportunity for members of the Bar to mingle and dine with members of the federal bench in a warm and relaxed setting. Your attendance at this year's dinner and support in making it a success are greatly appreciated.

PLEASE IMMEDIATELY CALL DEE OSTERMAN FOR RESERVATIONS 548-3450.

L to R: Cas Swastek (Co-Chair), Miriam Van Goor (Treasury), Webster Buhl (Secretary of State), Pamela Thompson (Assistant U.S. Attorney), Maureen Faes (V.A. District Counsel), Elizabeth Hacker (Immigration District Counsel), Michael Witzke (Co-Chair) Elcy Maccani (IRS), and Judy Miller (Michigan Business Ombudsman).

CONFLICT BETWEEN THE FIRST AMENDMENT AND TITLE VII EMPLOYMENT DISCRIMINATION CLAIMS TO BE EXPLORED AT APRIL 28th GILMAN LUNCHEON.

The conflict between the First Amendment and hostile environment employment discrimination claims and remedies under Title VII will be the subject of a point/counterpoint at the April 28th Leonard R. Gilman Award Luncheon.

One of the debaters will be Wayne State University Associate Law Professor Kingsley R. Browne who will argue that the current interpretation of Title VII in hostile environment employment discrimination cases runs afoul of existing First Amendment doctrine.

Professor Browne teaches employment discrimination law, employment law and torts at Wayne State and has been a prolific legal writer including articles on the Civil Rights Act of 1991, statistics in employment discrimination cases, comparable worth and preemption, as well as the topic of his presentation. He has also spoken before the ABA and ICLE among others, as well to the media in his areas of expertise. A clerk to Supreme Court Associate Justice Byron White in 1983-84, he was an associate and partner at San Francisco's Morrison & Foerster where he practiced labor and employment law from 1984 until 1989. He came to Wayne State in 1989.

The luncheon will also feature the presentation of the Leonard R Gilman Award to this year's recipient. The Award was established by the Detroit Chapter of the Federal Bar Association in 1985 in memory of Leonard R. Gilman who, at the time of his death on February 12, 1985, was the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Michigan. The award is presented annually at a Chapter Luncheon to "an outstanding practitioner of criminal law" exemplifying the qualities that "Lenny" possessed.

The luncheon will be held in the Riverfront Ballroom at the Renaissance Center. Tickets for the luncheon, which begins with a reception at 11:30 A.M., can be obtained by returning the registration form below or by calling Mark Brewer at 965-3464.
